CIRCULATING THROUGHOUT THE VAST AGRICULTURAL AREA OF PALM BEACH COUNTY

NEW BANK OF BELLE GLADE WILL OPEN NOV. 14

Refinery Construction Will Start Soon In Hendry Co.

Word from Savannah is to the effect that Savannah Sugar Refinery Corp., will in the not too distant future start construction of a new refinery in Hendry county to be located immediately south of the Okeelanta Railroad spur on the Coast Line on SR823. (Indian Reservation Road.)

The new refinery will be the last word in modern sugar refining machinery and will be housed in a new structure 210x204 feet, with full air conditioning. Officials of the refinery told this newspaper a few months ago when they were looking for a refinery site that 100 people will be employed as a permanent staff and that the refinery will be operated year round.

A letter from Lawton W. Calhoun, president of the refinery, states "Our company is delighted that its plans for a new refinery will further cement relations with the State of Florida where we have done business for more than 46 years."

Not only do we purchase a very large volume of raw sugar from the Everglades area, amounting to well over $45,000,000 for the 1962-63 crop, but Florida has always been one of our largest marketing areas for refined sugars.

We look forward eagerly to this new relationship and have been aware of the opportunity that this new venture presents.

The property, comprising 80 acres on the west side of SR 823 at the railroad crossing, is about one and three-quarters miles south of McDuffie's corner.

Funeral Services For Pat Carroll

Funeral services were held at graveside at Port Mayaca on Monday afternoon for Pat Carroll, 51, who died in West Palm Beach where he had lived for several years since retiring from service station operation in Canal Point. Father Francis Pennach was in charge of the services.

Mr. Carroll was a long-time resident of Canal Point where he operated the Gulf Station and won a wide circle of friends who will regret to hear of his passing. Several of his long-time friends paid their last respects at the graveside service Monday afternoon.

The U. S. Sugar Corporation huge mill in Clewiston will grind cane from 44,429 acres of their own and 8,417 acres from independent growers in the area.

County Commissioner Lake Lytal, veteran member of the board, is in Good Samaritan Hospital this week, recovering from a heart attack.

Lytal was stricken at his home, over the weekend.

Monday his condition was reported as satisfactory and he is expected to be away from his office for several weeks.

Local Carnival Is A Money Success

The Annual Canal Point P. T. A. Halloween Carnival was held Thursday evening on the school grounds from 6 until 9:30 p. m. The cafeteria opened at six and served chili, hot dogs, hamburgers, pie, cokes and coffee all evening. The booths and rides were set up on the front lawn of the school. First Grade, Dart Game, $16.55; Second, popcorn and snowballs, $12.80; third, Pony rides, $12.60; fourth, Candy and cupcakes, $19.59; fifth, fishpond, $23.30; sixth, cake walk, $98.58; seventh, candy apples, surprise package and cold drinks, $29.20; eighth, spook house in the auditorium, $24.66. The country store, $60.85; hayride, $14.05 and the P. T. A. food booth in the cafeteria, $151.55.

The costume parade was held at 7 p. m. around the sidewalk in front of the school. The drawing for the door prizes was held at 8:30 with Paul Rardin acting as Master of Ceremonies. The prize donors and winners were: Canal Point Pharmacy, Wilfred Pullen; Canal Point Department Store, Coleman Conley; Echols Grocery, Joe Carr; Parrish Jewelry, Maxine Maxson; Boe's, F. F. Burr; Sears Hardware.

A Dutch Auction was held on an iron given by Herman's Electric. The iron made $10.35. The carnival was well attended with fun for all.

Corn Holds At $2, Beans Sell At $3.25

Sweet corn in the Glades has been selling this week at $2 per crate with the demand not too strong. Last week a little white corn commanded $2.50 per crate but there was little of this variety.

Beans have not been in strong demand and the prices have been unsatisfactory to growers. They have been receiving $3.25 for some of the best offerings but this price isn't high enough to make any farmer rich.

The newly chartered Bank of Belle Glade will open officially for business next Thursday morning at 9:30 a. m., according to President E. B. McDaniel. An official "Open House" will be held the evening before from 4 p. m. until 7 p. m. in order that Glades folks may see first hand exactly what the new financial institution is like.

An innovation in Glades banking hours is being set up by the new bank in that regular banking hours of 9:30 a. m. until 2 p. m. will be in force on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and longer hours—until 5:30 p. m. on Friday—will be the order of the day for patrons of the bank. It is thought that the five-thirty closing on Friday will give growers and packing houses a few extra hours in which to secure their weekend payrolls as none of the banks in this area open on Saturday. The Drive-In window will be open Monday through Thursday 9:30 a. m. until 3:00 p. m. and on Friday until 5:30 p. m.

Mr. McDaniel announced the following appointments of department heads: W. Wayne Michael, vice president and cashier. Mr. Michael comes to the area from Orange Park, Fla., where he was cashier of the Orange Park State Bank. He formerly worked with the Barnett National in Jacksonville and the North Side Bank in Jacksonville before going to Orange Park.

An installment Loan Department is being set up in the bank and hours for this special department have been set Monday through Thursday at 9:30 a. m. until 3:00 p. m. and from 9:30 a. m. until 5:30 p. m. on Friday. Theodore Blauer, is to be in charge of the installment loan department and he comes to the Glades from Ocala, where he was connected with the Florida National Bank.

Mr. McDaniel said the Head Teller will be Mrs. Roberta V. Ferguson, coming from Douglas, Georgia, where she was with the Farmers Bank for 11 years after working with the Coffee County Bank for two years.

The bookkeeping department will be under the direction of Mrs. Cherie Milner of Lanett, Alabama where she was with the Valley National Bank for many years. Curtis Thompson, Jr., of Belle Glade will be a trainee in bookkeeping, public relations and the teller department.

The new Bank of Belle Glade is a home-owned and home-operated bank with the following members on the board of directors: C. A. (Mutt) Thomas, Lake Harbor grower; Robert D. Apelgren, Pahokee grower; Joe Tom Boynton, President of the Seminole Life Insurance Company; Robert E. Matthews, Belle Glade attorney; George L. Royal, Jr., Glades merchant.

Mr. McDaniel, the president; James A. Ball, long time produce grower, shipper and now in real estate; John Henry Logan who is a vice president of the Exchange National Bank in Tampa; Billy Rogers, President of South Bay Growers; Claude Shirley, head of Shirley Brothers in Pahokee and

South Bay Bonds Water Expansion

The thriving little city of South Bay is fast on its way to relieve some of its growing pains, in that a better water supply is in the offing. For years the city has purchased water from Belle Glade and now the city will go into the water business on its own.

A $375,000 water revenue bond issue by South Bay was validated in Circuit Court Monday by Circuit Judge James R. Knott.

The bonds are to be issued in denominations of $5,000 each maturing Jan. 1, 1999.

The court validation is the next step toward the actual bond issuance. The proceeds are to be used for the construction and acquisition of additions, extensions and improvements to the water system of the city.

Repayment will be from the water revenues and from the utilities service taxes levied and collected by the city.

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

A group of Palm Beach property owners, headed by Maurice Frank, asked the county commission this week to establish a special erosion district to protect a strip of beach property north of Lake Worth.

The county board agreed that it was a sound proposition but ruled out any immediate action since creation of such a proposed district would hinge on legislative action in 1965.

Principal attraction of the Frank proposal was that property owners agreed to foot the entire bill. He proposed that a seawall be constructed along the ocean front—an area of about 2000 feet—and that cost of construction be charged directly to the property owners. Frank suggested a bond issue to finance the work—an issue to be paid off in the next ten years by a special tax levy divided equally among the beach property owners.

The spokesman told the commission that the erosion problem in the area is becoming critical. As an example, he said the Sea Breeze Hotel which he owns, used to be more than 100 feet from the ocean—this week the water was lapping the shoreline only 12 feet away.

The commission referred Frank's proposal to its engineering and legal staff to determine what, if anything, could be worked out.

The county commission this week took steps to install a safety signal at a rail crossing which last week was the scene for the death of a young mother and her 18-month old daughter.

Commission George Warren asked the commission to approve some type of signal or flashing light at the Seaboard Railroad on Germantown Road west of Delray Beach. He said the road is not heavily traveled and that it would probably never warrant installation of an expensive signal, but some type of signal is necessary. The board approved the request.

Dredge Purchase Headed For Rocks

Purchase of a dredge by Palm Beach County for use, initially, for improvement of Lake Ida and Lake Osborn, appeared headed for the rocks this week.

The county had originally agreed to the purchase of a dredge from the American Marine and Machinery Co., of Nashville, Tenn. Later the deal hit a snag over reported patent infringements.

The commission, last month, voted to cancel its contract until such time as the patent disagreements were ironed out and the firm furnished a bond to protect the county.

Monday, County Attorney Harry Johnston reported that a bond had been furnished but that it was not satisfactory.

The commission voted to reaffirm its cancellation order.

Commissioner George Warren, in whose district Lake Ida is located, won support of the commission to call for bids for pumping 100,000 cubic yards of fill from Lake Ida to be placed on the west side of the lake in an area being developed for recreational purposes.

Subdivision Gives Owners Trouble

Completion of San Castle subdivision—particularly roads—is being studied this week by county commissioners.

An appeal for placing a deadline for completion of the planned improvements, was requested by a representative of the community's Civic Association.

The commission said owners of the subdivision have already been accorded time extensions and there were reports the developers had gone broke.

The civic club representative also told the commission sand was being hauled from the area by a fleet of trucks that are damaging roads already in place.

The commission said removal of the sand is being done under permit.

How to help residents of the subdivision is a matter to be reviewed by the county engineer and county attorney who were instructed to make a study and report back to the commission.

In other actions this week the board received bids for new equipment for the county home and hospital where a new section is under construction.

Voted a double assist for educational facilities—a road improvement at Palm Beach Junior College and a grass mowing job at Florida Atlantic University.

A message from the Treasury of a free people

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom. While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with

County Ag Agents Are Actually On U of Fla. Faculty

County agricultural and home demonstration agents, who form a state-wide network for work in cooperative extension, are actually members of the faculty of the University of Florida.

As a member of the university faculty, basically the extension agent's job is one of education. The vast majority of county agents and their assistants actively pursue higher degrees as a method of professional improvement.

Florida's Extension Service has one of the finest records in the south in academic improvement. Of the 66 county agents, 27 have completed masters' degrees. Of the 74 assistant and associate county agents, one has a doctorate degree and 30 have completed masters' degrees. Thirty-eight agents and assistants are currently enrolled in graduate degree courses.

Do And Don't Rules For Fla. Hunters

TALLAHASSEE — A list of "things to do and remember" for Florida hunters was issued today by A. D. Aldrich, director, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

In the interest of safety, good sportsmanship, and staying out of trouble, hunters should:

Obtain a copy of and become familiar with the State and Federal hunting rules and regulations. Always handle firearms in such a manner that you or other people are not endangered.

Obtain the regular state hunting license from a county judge and the special hunt area permit in addition to your regular hunting license before entering any of the wildlife management areas supervised by the Commission.

Buy a duck stamp and write your name in ink across face of stamp before hunting ducks or geese.

Respect the property of others and always ask permission before crossing fences or hunting on private lands.

Plug your shotgun to three-shell capacity, magazine and chamber combined.

Never use full-jacketed or military-style cartridge or 22 calibre rimfire cartridges while hunting or taking deer or bear.

Always check hunting area for illegal bait and never shoot birds over baited area.

Never hunt turkey with a dog and don't hunt or kill a swimming deer.

Never carry or use a gun with a light in the woods or on the water at night.

Never use artificial light, fire, net, trap, snare, poison, salt lick, set guns or live decoys to hunt or take game animals or birds.

Remember not to shoot doe or fawn deer, cub bear, panther, snow goose, Ross goose, brant, redhead or canvasback ducks, swan, non-game or song birds, Key Deer, alligators, Everglades Kite, hawk, owl, or eagle. Such animals are fully protected by law. Always look before you shoot. Aldrich said that there were many more detailed rules and regulations that all hunters must follow. Summaries of these rules and regulations are available from the office of all county judges.

New Attraction For The Tourists

CHOPPEE—Deep in the heart of Collier County's Big Cypress, two miles from this little hamlet is the newest tourist attraction in southwest Florida — Turner's River Jungle Gardens. It's 45 miles east of Naples, and 70 miles west of Miami via the famous Tamiami Trail (U. S. 41) which slices across the southern part of the state.

Featuring the primitive beauty of the wilderness, Turner's River, today, represents more than two years of careful work following a master plan designed to make accessible yet preserve one of the state's beautiful cypress strands. Only a few years ago cypress was logged in southwest Florida, but that era has ended, and beautiful cypress strands are becoming rare as the bulldozers of civilization march.

CLASSIFIED ADS PAY BIG DIVIDENDS

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to $2\frac{1}{4}\%$ for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed 4% each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra $\frac{1}{4}\%$ from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my H Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your H Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic 10% increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount your name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for peace. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

Enrollment Is Up At Junior College

Enrollment at Palm Beach Junior College has increased by 428 students this year, compared with 1962, according to official figures released Monday at Tallahassee.

But there are 49 fewer students at Roosevelt (Negro) Junior College.

State School Supt. Thomas D. Bailey, said there are 3,130 pupils enrolled at PBJC and 182 at Roosevelt. College authorities said the 1962 figures were 2,703 at PBJC and 231 at Roosevelt.

A spokesman at Roosevelt said a change in policy, directed by the state auditor's office, probably caused the drop in student enrollment. He said a deferred payment plan to pay the $60 registration fee had been discontinued this fall.

Bailey reported enrollment in all 28 Florida junior colleges at 50,051 for a hike of 11,841 or 31 per cent over the 38,210 students on the rolls last year at this time.

Student numbers are expected to increase during the year as more persons signed up for second semester courses, said Bailey.
